Looking for More?

The Connecticut River Museum invites teachers and students to discover the River Valley and explore the natural environment and human experience along its 410 miles.

Connecticut River Museum programs are available for grades pre-K to 12 for public, private, and homeschool groups. In each program students will participate in a variety of learning experiences that allow them to investigate the River and its people through observation, experimentation, and exploration.

Winter and Spring Mini-Camps: During the December and April school vacation days, children ages 6–12 are invited to join our mini-camps. Each day is a different theme and will be filled with fun, engaging activities in the Museum and outside around Essex.

Visit www.ctrivermuseum.org for more information or contact the Director of Education at sburns@ctrivermuseum.org or 860.767.8269.

HISTORY NATURE ADVENTURE

EXPLORE LEARN CREATE

Sailing into the Past

July 6-10 | Ages 12-15

Learn how to sail a tall ship aboard the reproduction of the Onrust. The original ship was a wooden vessel built by Dutch explorer Captain Adriaen Block and his crew. Rig sails, tie knots, fire a cannon—by the end of the week you will have the skills to sail the Onrust on the Connecticut River. ➤ Located at the Museum campus in Essex.

Finding the First Americans

July 13-17 | Ages 9-12

Learn about the diverse indigenous people who called Connecticut home! Make a dugout canoe, cook on an open fire, and build a wigwam model. Try your hand at building a fishing net, planting a Three Sisters Garden, or creating pottery. ➤ Located at historic Bushnell Farm in Old Saybrook.

Colonial Survival

July 20-24 | Ages 6-8

Travel back in time and discover what life was like on a colonial farm. Build a timber frame structure, learn to weave, cook on an open hearth, plant a garden, play colonial games, and more! ➤ Located at historic Bushnell Farm in Old Saybrook.

Return to Colonial Life

July 20-24 | Ages 9-12

Have you survived Colonial Survival Camp? Are you ready to travel back to the past? Become a member of a colonial community and try your hand at farming and woodworking. Experience a colonial school day and cook an entire meal on the open hearth. (Participation in Colonial Survival Camp not required.) ➤ Located at historic Bushnell Farm in Old Saybrook.

Life at Sea

July 27-31 | Ages 9-12

Ahoy Matey! Join our crew and learn the skills of a sailor and find out about life aboard a wooden sailing ship. Become a ship designer as you create and test your own model vessel. Build and launch a boat that actually holds a person! Sail aboard the historic vessel Onrust—hoist her sails and immerse yourself in the life of a sailor. ➤ Located at the Museum campus in Essex.

Critters, Coves & Currents

August 3-7 | Ages 6-8

Discover what is over, under, and along the Connecticut River! Try your hand at catching critters using dip and seine nets, create nature crafts, and take a journey on the River to spot wildlife! Learn about the many fish, plants, birds, and animals that call the Connecticut River Valley home. ➤ Located at the Museum campus in Essex.

Building, Baiting & Boating

August 10-14 | Ages 9-12

Exploration and adventure await when you join the Building, Baiting & Boating Camp! Challenge yourself to find out all you can about the River. Spend each day in coves, on islands, and on the water. Collect samples, conduct experiments, and build a river aquarium at the Museum. ➤ Located at the Museum campus in Essex.
